

NEW YORK FARM SHOW

2019

PRESENTATION SCHEDULE

DAY	ACTIVITY	LOCATION/ROOM
THURSDAY: FEB. 21
10:00 am - 2:00 p.m.	Safety Workshop	Center of Progress Building NYCAMH
10:00 am	Jason Hartschuh - "The 15 Measures of a Competitive Dairy Operation"	Arts &amp; Home Building Bistro Room
10:30 a.m.	NYBP - "Cattle Care Just Like Car Care - Yearly Maintenance"	Dairy Building - Beef
11:00 am	NYFOA - Insects that Threaten our Woods ; Mark Whitmore, Cornell University	Arts &amp; Home Building Somerset Room
	NYBP - "The New Animal Identification Defined"	Dairy Building - Beef
11:30 a.m.	NYBP - "County Fairs: How to Promote and Educate About Beef and Your Industry"	Dairy Building - Beef
Noon:	NYBP - "BQA: What Do These Letters Mean and Why Are They Getting a Lot of Attention"	Dairy Building - Beef
12:30 p.m.	NYBP - "Cattle Weights: How, To and Why?"	Dairy Building - Beef
1:00 p.m.	Jason Hartschuh - "Expanding the Liquid Manure Application Window"	Arts &amp; Home Building Bistro Room
	NYFOA - It's Your Legacy: Planning for the Future of Your Land ; Kristina Ferrare, Cooperative Extension of Onondaga County and Kimberly N. Rothman, Bousquet Holstein PLLC	Arts &amp; Home Building Somerset Room
	NYBP - "Bulls, Bulls, Bulls. The Missing Link, the Connection That Can Improve the Next Generation"	Dairy Building - Beef
3:00 p.m.	Jason Hartschuh - "Summer and Winter Calf Care"	Arts &amp; Home Building Bistro Room
FRIDAY: FEB. 22
9:00 am - 4:00 p.m.	NYCAMH Health Screening	Center of Progress Building
9:30 am	Jason Hartschuh - "Getting Started in Dairy Beef?"	Arts &amp; Home Building Bistro Room

10:00 am	NYFOA - New York's Woodlands: What We Have and Their Importance; Hugh Canham, Emeritus Professor, SUNY College of Env. Sci. and Forestry	Arts &amp; Home Building Somerset Room
10:30 a.m.	"Cattle Care Just Like Car Care - Yearly Maintenance"	Dairy Building - Beef
11:00 am	NYFO Identification and Ecology of Northeastern Hardwoods; Peter Smallidge, State Extension Forester, Cornell University	Arts &amp; Home Building Somerset Room
	NYBP - "The New Animal Identification Defined"	Dairy Building - Beef
	(AA) Sally Flis of The Fertilizer Institute, based in Washington, D.C., will talk about the 4Rs of nutrient management: applying the right fertilizer source at the right rate, at the right time and in the right place. The Fertilizer Institute and The Nature Conservancy teamed up to launch the 4R New York Nutrient Stewardship Certification Program this summer. The program encourages ag retailers, service providers and other certification professionals to adopt proven practices through the 4Rs concept of nutrient management.	Arts &amp; Home Building Bistro Room
11:30 a.m.	NYBP - "County Fairs: How to Promote and Educate About Beef and Your Industry"	Dairy Building - Beef
Noon:	NYBP - "BQA: What Do These Letters Mean and Why Are They Getting a Lot of Attention"	Dairy Building - Beef
12:30 p.m.	NYBP - "Cattle Weights: How, To and Why?"	Dairy Building - Beef
1:00 p.m.	NYFOA - Ecology and Management of Invasive Species; Peter Smallidge, State Extension Forester, Cornell University	Arts &amp; Home Building Somerset Room
	(AA) Tim Weigle, senior Extension associate at Cornell's Lake Erie Research and Extension Laboratory, will talk about spotted lanternfly and its effects on agriculture. Spotted lanternfly has affected grape and orchard growers in Pennsylvania, but it also has the potential to affect field crops, too.	Arts &amp; Home Building Bistro Room
	NYBP - "Bulls, Bulls, Bulls. The Missing Link, the Connection That Can Improve the Next Generation"	Dairy Building - Beef
2:00 p.m.	NYFOA - The Future of American Chestnut in New York, Sara Fern Fitzsimmons, Dir. of Restoration Penn State Univ.	Arts &amp; Homes Building Somerset Room
	(AA) Ken Smith, executive director of Cornell Cooperative Extension of Chenango County, will talk about "Managing Ticks and Tick Risks On Your Farm."	Arts &amp; Home Building Bistro Room
3:00 p.m.	NYFOA - White Tail Deer: Too Many or Not Enough; Jeremy Hurst, NYS Dept of Environmental Conservation	Arts &amp; Homes Building Somerset Room
	Jason Hartschuh - "Identifying and Managing Commodity Feed Shrink"	Arts &amp; Home Building

*Bistro RoomSATURDAY: FEB. 23

9:00 am - 3:00 p.m.	NYCAMH Health Screening	Center of Progress Building
9:00 am	Jason Hartschuh - "Managing Employees as Assets"	Arts &amp; Home Building Bistro Room
10:00 am -	NYFOA - New York's Woodlands: What We Have and Their Importance; Hugh Canham, Emeritus Professor, SUNY College of Env. Sci. and Forestry	Arts &amp; Homes Building Somerset Room
11:00 am	NYFOA - Protecting From Biting Insects & Pesky Plants in the Woods; Mike Burns, NY Center for Agriculture Medicine & Health	Arts &amp; Homes Building Somerset Room
	Jason Hartschuh - "How to Buy the Right Tractor for Your Small Farm"	Arts &amp; Home Building Bistro Room
11:30 a.m.	NYBP - New York Beef Junior Members Presentations	Dairy Building - Beef
1:00 p.m.	NYFOA - Safe and Useful Trails in Your Woods; Stacey Kazacos, Woodlot Owner, Mt. Vision, NY	Arts &amp; Homes Building Somerset Room
	CCE , Agritourism Legislation Workshop (Commercial Equine Operators)	Arts &amp; Home Building Bistro Room
2:00 p.m.	NYFOA - Getting Federal Aid for Woodlot Improvements; Michael Fournier, US Dep't of Agriculture, Natural Resource Conservation Service	Arts &amp; Homes Building Somerset Room
3:00 p.m.	NYFOA - Woodlot Management and Income Taxes; Hugh Canham, Emeritus Professor, SUNY College of Env. Sci. and Forestry	Arts &amp; Homes Building Somerset Room

